

January 19th SB 141 ALRA Hearing

We have challenged the new Tier IV Retirement system to the Alaska Labor Relations Agency, ALRA. The basis of this challenge is that we believe retirement benefits are mandatory subjects of bargaining and therefore negotiable. Art Chance will be advocating on behalf of union members from all across the State. The ALRA hearing is this Friday and we will keep you informed as we go through the process.