Re: Letter of Resignation

Brad,

It has been almost four months since you hired me into the position as Business Agent of the Alaska Correctional Officers Association. I had hoped to give this job an ample amount of time to determine if I would be a good fit for this organization. I have come to the realization that there are aspects of the job that don't agree with me and therefore must tender my resignation. I will continue in my position for as long as you deem it necessary.

I want to thank you, the ACOA office staff, the Board and membership for giving me an opportunity to try this job. I believe I have been a benefit to ACOA members and feel good to have successfully assisted some individual members dealing with serious issues. In the short time I was here it was a real eye opener as to how dedicated the ACOA staff and Board members are for the membership. You have my full endorsement in that regard and Correctional Officers are lucky to have an organization that truly cares for them. I wish you and the membership the best in contract negotiations and that CO's will get the compensation they deserve. Good luck and best wishes to you all. Sincerely,

Pat Beegle
